Inside information: Partnera has started work on reorienting its strategy and operations

Partnera is reviewing the status and situation of its holdings and their suitability for the company's core business in connection with a strategic realignment.

Partnera's holdings under strategic review include Foamit Group, Nordic Option Oy, Finda Oy and Telebusiness InWest Oy.

As part of the strategic review, Partnera will continue to evaluate the investment plan for the Foamit Group's Norwegian factory, announced in November 2022, and will communicate the decision as part of the results of the strategic review.

"The circular economy is a strongly developing and strengthening sector. Our expertise and position in the industry is strong. The Group is financially sound, which is further strengthened by the recently signed long-term financing agreement. We will continue to make good progress with our strategy", says Peter Vapaamies.

Partnera expects to announce the results of the strategy work in the third quarter of 2023.
